What should I bring?

Staying in a suite, cottage, or vacation home? Here's a list of what's included in your rental and what you should consider bringing:

Each suite, cottage, and home is supplied with:

- fully made beds with all linens
- towels, bar soap, shampoo
- dish soap, cloths, towels
- toilet paper and facial tissue
- coffee maker; coffee filters
- garbage bags, recycling bins
- basic set of pots and pans
- basic cooking utensils
- dishes and silverware for max occupancy

Amenities available in lodge:

- limited Pack-n-plays available for use in lodge rooms and suites
- coin-operated laundry available to all
- towels for pool and hot-tub use
- irons and boards at front desk
- hair dryers in rooms and suites
- complimentary guest coffee from 5-9 AM in Grandma's Swedish Bakery
- ice machine for small buckets

Items you may wish to consider bringing:

- paper towels and napkins
- seasonings, spices, sugar
- ground coffee, creamer
- specialty cookware and utensils
- beach towels
- large garbage bags

For cottages and houses:

- charcoal, lighter fluid, and grilling supplies
- iron and board; hair dryer
- laundry detergent for homes with washers
- fans (no AC, box fans provided)

Renting multiple units or hosting a large gathering? Plan to bring extra supplies. Equipment and dishes may not be removed from or moved between units.

No daily housekeeping in cottages and houses. Additional amenities available for pick-up at front desk.

See RowleysBayResort.com/policies for more information on rental units.

My Rowleys Bay Resort vacation shopping list!

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____